Amend the Law relating to the Registry of Deeds Office, A.D. 1874.
Ireland.

WHEREAS by an Act of the session of the second and third years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter eighty-seven, intituled "An Act to regulate the Office for Registering Deeds, Conveyances, and Wills in Ireland," the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, are authorised to regulate the Register Office therein mentioned, and to make regulations, orders, and directions respecting such office, and the persons employed therein, and the fees and moneys received therein, and by section thirty-five of the said Act it is among other things enacted as follows :

- " Provided always, that every regulation, order, or direction so made or given by the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners aforesaid under this Act shall be forthwith laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament shall then be sitting, and if Parliament shall not then be sitting, in that case within fourteen days after the next meeting of Parliament, and that the same shall not be carried into effect or become and be binding and conclusive until after the end of the session in which the same shall be so laid before both Houses of Parliament : "
- And whereas it is expedient to repeal the latter portion of the said provisions which limits the time at which the regulation, order, or direction is to take effect :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. So much of section thirty-five of the above-recited Act as enacts that any regulation, order, or direction therein mentioned shall not be carried into effect, or become and be binding and conclusive until after the end of the session in which the same is laid before both Houses of Parliament, is hereby repealed.
